What teambuilding
activities did you do
this summer to prep
for an amazing fall?

Food For Thought

If teambuilding is needed to plan activities during the best part of the year, then it definitely needs to be a part of planning for the most difficult.

Breakout #2!

In 4 minutes,
brainstorm as many
ideas as possible to reset
and teambuild with your fellow leaders.

Today's Game Plan!

Food For Thought

If fall is all about school spirit the winter should be all about meeting students needs.

What are the biggest traditions your school has in-between now and the end of the school year?

Food For Thought

If activities in the fall are expected, then new activities in the winter
are built.

The background features four large, solid blue circles and one blue arc, all partially visible at the edges of the frame. The circles are located in the top-left, top-right, bottom-left, and bottom-right corners, while the arc is on the left side.
