In Session Week 4

Activities as New Beginnings

Next school year might seem unclear, but we have absolute control over how we choose to encourage students and staff. This week, your challenge is to create a gamelan for the 2020-2021 school year.

Communicate and Welcome

What message would you like to give to next year's incoming class? How can you communicate that message to each student before next fall?

Collaborate

Name some teachers and administrators who you would like to collaborate with next year. Better yet, come up with a game plan to contact each staff member before the start of next year!
